

With a BIG Smile on my face comes the Operation Update from Harry Lee Smith AKA Evil Kenivel.

It's a very tender touch and go with the back on my route to recovery (I think I hear Jingle-Bells ...Tingle-Bells) but I am sure those will pass. I do have a lot of back pain relief after Dr. Morgan Lorio operated on my back at L-5 and T-11 in the Bristol, TN hospital on Monday Dec 5. I feel very fortunate to have had such a professional and well known surgeon be the person who performed micro surgery on me. Also thanks to James Meyers, PA who listened and helped very much.

I will be back to see the Doctor on 12/22 for a follow up visit. I did have a Cat Scan after the operation and Dr. Lorio said everything looked good! It's looking up to be a very good Christmas for Gail and I after all.
